Translation of articles on the site

We encourage anyone to translate any article off the site so we can offer it to others for study. Therefore permission is granted for you to translate the articles on the site provided you acknowledge the source and include the statement (used by permission author's name, http://bible.org Copyright ©1996-2020 All rights reserved) and that you submit the translated material back to us so we can post it on the sitefor others to use. Formatting guidelines are found here.

2- NET Bible® Copyright Statement

see https://netbible.com/copyright/

The NET Bible is a completely new translation of the Bible with 60,000 translators' notes! It was completed by more than 25 scholars – experts in the original biblical languages – who worked directly from the best currently available Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek texts. The translators' notes make the original languages far more accessible, allowing you to look over the translator's shoulder at the very process of translation.
