LOCKMAN FOUNDATION

PERMISSION TO QUOTE: NASB, AMPLIFIED, NBLA, & LBLA BIBLES – COPYRIGHT & TRADEMARK

If your request is beyond the permissions granted below, please use the Permission to Quote Request Form to request express written permission.

Below is the general information for the:
NASB, Amplified, NBLA, LBLA, Trademarks, Web Site, & AI Models

PERMISSION TO QUOTE THE NASB

The text of the NASB® (New American Standard Bible®) may be quoted in any form (written, visual, electronic, or audio) up to and inclusive of one thousand (1,000) verses without express written permission of The Lockman Foundation, providing the verses do not amount to a complete book of the Bible, nor do the verses quoted account for more than 50% of the total text of the work in which they are quoted, nor may more than 1,000 verses be stored in an electronic retrieval system.

Notice of copyright must appear as follows, unless otherwise stated below, on the title page, copyright page, or the section where the quoted material appears:

“Scripture quotations taken from the (NASB®) New American Standard Bible®, Copyright 1960, 1971, 1977, 1995, 2020 by The Lockman Foundation. Used by permission. All rights reserved. www.Lockman.org”

Only use the last year corresponding to the edition(s) quoted. For example, if quotations are from the NASB 1995, do not include the year 2020 in the copyright notice.

Not-for-sale Media

When quotations from the NASB text are used in certain not-for-sale print material, such as church bulletins, orders of service, posters, or similar media, the abbreviation (NASB) may simply be used after the quotation.

When quotations from the NASB text are used in certain not-for-sale digital media, such as presentation slides, digital orders of service, or similar media, the abbreviation (NASB) may simply be used after the quotation.

For other digital media, such as social media posts, blogs, or email the abbreviation (NASB) may simply be used along with the quotation provided it is a click-enabled web link to www.Lockman.org, when possible.

For web pages or apps the full copyright notice must be used with www.Lockman.org being a click-enabled web link.

VIDEO & AUDIO RECORDINGS AND STREAMING MEDIA

When quotations from the NASB text are used in video or audio recordings or streaming media, the following statement must be included in the video or audio file, “Scripture quotations taken from the NASB (New American Standard Bible) Copyright 1971, 1995, 2020 (only use the last year corresponding to the edition quoted) by The Lockman Foundation. Used by permission. All rights reserved. www.Lockman.org”

If the video or audio is available for download for offline access, the same copyright notice must be on the web page and in the app and be a click-enabled web link to www.Lockman.org

ARTWORK OR MERCHANDISE

For artwork or Merchandise, the full copyright notice may be on a tag, on the back, on the packaging, or wherever convenient. It does not have to be put on the product itself.

PERMISSION TO QUOTE THE AMPLIFIED BIBLE

The text of the Amplified® Bible may be quoted in any form (written, visual, electronic, or audio) up to and inclusive of one thousand (1,000) verses without express written permission of The Lockman Foundation, providing the verses do not amount to a complete book of the Bible, nor do the verses quoted account for more than 50% of the total text of the work in which they are quoted, nor may more than 1,000 verses be stored in an electronic retrieval system.

Notice of copyright must appear as follows, unless otherwise stated below, on the title page, copyright page, or the section where the quoted material appears:

If from the Amplified Bible (AMP) 2015 edition:

“Scripture quotations taken from the Amplified® Bible (AMP), Copyright © 2015 by The Lockman Foundation. Used by permission. www.Lockman.org”

If from the Amplified Bible Classic (AMPC) 1987 edition:

“Scripture quotations taken from the Amplified® Bible Classic (AMPC),

Copyright © 1954, 1958, 1962, 1964, 1965, 1987 by The Lockman Foundation
Used by permission. www.Lockman.org”

NOT-FOR-SALE MEDIA

When quotations from the AMP or AMPC text are used in not-for-sale print material, such as church bulletins, orders of service, posters, or similar media, the abbreviation (AMP) for the 2015 edition or (AMPC) for the 1987 edition may be used after the quotation.

When quotations from the AMP or AMPC text are used in certain not-for-sale digital media, such as presentation slides, digital orders of service, or similar media, the respective abbreviation (AMP) or (AMPC) may simply be used after the quotation.

For other digital media, such as social media posts, blogs, or email the respective abbreviation (AMP) or (AMPC) may simply be used along with the quotation provided it is a click-enabled web link to www.Lockman.org

For web pages or apps the full copyright notice must be used with www.Lockman.org being a click-enabled web link.

VIDEO & AUDIO RECORDINGS AND STREAMING MEDIA

When quotations from the AMP or AMPC text are used in video or audio recordings or streaming media, The statement, “Scripture quotations taken from the Amplified Bible Copyright 1954, 1958, 1962, 1964, 1965, 1987, 2015 (only use the last year corresponding to the edition quoted) by The Lockman Foundation. Used by permission. All rights reserved. www.Lockman.org” must be included in the video or audio file.

ABOUT THE LOCKMAN FOUNDATION

The Lockman Foundation is a religious nonprofit, nondenominational Christian ministry dedicated to the translation, publication, and distribution of the New American Standard Bible (NASB), Amplified Bible (AMP), La Biblia de las Américas (LBLA), Nueva Biblia de las Américas (NBLA), and other Biblical resources.

Since the beginning of our translation work in the 1950s, our mission has remained the same: To faithfully translate the inspired Word of God from the original Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek with unsurpassed accuracy into English and Spanish, creating translations that are trusted and understandable. Because language changes over time, we offer multiple versions using different styles of language to meet the broad reading preferences of people today. Our goal is to offer the most accurate Bible translations possible.

The NASB, Amplified, LBLA, and NBLA Bible translations are ideal for daily reading and in-depth study. They are widely accepted by pastors, professors, and ministry leaders as accurate translations of the Holy Bible on which they can rely and trust for their Bible reading, study, and teaching.
